

Independent College Dublin:
Young Journalist of the Year Competition 2010

The Rules:

- Entries will only be accepted if accompanied by official entry form.
- Entrants must be registered students in a second level school/college.
- Entrants are only permitted to submit one entry to the competition.
- The judges and the sponsoring organisation will not enter into correspondence with regard to the judges' decisions and the decisions of the judges in the competition will be final.
- Independent College Dublin and the sponsoring organisation will not be deemed liable for loss, theft or damage to submissions, however occasioned.
- Persons directly related to employees of Independent College Dublin may not enter the competition.
- All entrants agree to be bound by the rules of the competition. Failure on the part of any entrant to adhere to any or all of these rules will render the entry in question invalid.

Submissions must arrive at the college no later than 5pm on Monday, March 15th.